

FUTURE READY: MODESTO CITY SCHOOLS

A closer look at the implementation timeline for the Future Ready initiative

Initiative Begins

Modesto City Schools (MCS) decides to make the first step towards going digital!

JAN 2014

Infrastructure

MCS begins to improve its network infrastructure. Expected completion date is July 2016.

JUL 2014

Digital Davis

Davis High School becomes a pilot school for the digital transition.

AUG 2014

HS ELA Digital Curriculum

High School English Language Arts (ELA) Curriculum Committee chooses to go with digital curriculum.

MAY 2015

First Advisory Committee

The Device Criteria Committee meets to develop device criteria and recommend a device.

OCT 2015

Board Workshop

The MCS Board of Trustees takes part in a workshop on technology, digital curriculum, infrastructure and plans.

DEC 2015

Ed Tech Conference

MCS hosts its first The Connected Educator (TCE) technology conference for all MCS teachers.

MAY 2016

The Network is Operational

MCS completes network infrastructure improvements.

JUL 2016

Additional Committees Created

MCS creates additional committees to curate best practices and develop policies for implementation.

AUG 2016

High Schools Pilot ELA Curriculum

Select high school ELA classes across the District pilot digital curriculum.

AUG 2016

Student Devices

The MCS Board of Trustees approves the lease of student devices for all high schools.

NOV 2016

Teacher Training

By January 2017, teachers have undergone over 2,000 hours of training.

JAN 2017

Next Steps

The Board of Trustees will adopt digital curriculum based on the 9-12 ELA Curriculum Committee recommendation in April 2017.

MCS will host a Family Information Night to help families support their students in April 2017.

A total of 13,300 devices will be deployed to high school students in August 2017.

Connect with us!

www.mcs4kids.com

www.facebook.com/MCS4kids

@MCS4Kids