

“Destinations” Interview Questions

Name: McCoy Kent

Destination: Northern Illinois University

Career goal: To get a great education, as well as pursue my dreams athletically.

What is your favorite subject/class & why? Favorite subject has to be US Government and Economics. We talked about stuff essential to living and more things about our country in the present as well as other countries.

Who is your favorite teacher & why? Mr. Sevick, just because he is a cool guy, and we have some similarities and common things.

What is your favorite high school memory? Favorite high school memory would be signing my letter of intent at Enochs – best moment of my life.

Who/what is your biggest influence & why? My parents; they have pushed me all my life, but all the things they made me do have paid off.

What is the most important lesson you learned? The most important lesson is don't always rely on someone to get somewhere or something.

What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Just to keep strong all four years, a little work for four years can end up making your future amazing.

Why did you select your destination? I selected this particular university, because I just loved the school itself and the facilities, as well as the coaches and the team. The school is also right by Chicago, so you can't go wrong with that.

How did Modesto City Schools prepare you for your future? With all the great teachers and standardized tests.

In what extracurricular activities did you participate (clubs/music/chorus/athletics)? Four-year Football Member (three years Varsity) / four year Varsity Wrestling Team Member / Pura Vida Club Member (Activities Member)

What is your favorite quote or saying? “Character is a journey, not a destination”. -- Bill Clinton
