

“Destinations” Interview Questions

Name: Cameron Willform-Baker

Destination: San Francisco State University

Career goal: To become a Cardiologist

What is your favorite subject/class & why? My favorite subject is definitely chemistry. There are so many processes and things that happen inside chemicals that we don't know about and it's interesting to find out why they do what they do.

Who is your favorite teacher & why? My favorite teacher is Mr. Durr because you can tell when he teaches that he actually cares about what he is teaching. It always amazes me how he is able to integrate some sort of musical background into every lesson.

What is your favorite high school memory? My favorite high school memory is when I was at the homecoming rally and the judges had announced that the seniors had won the pep-o-meter.

Who/what is your biggest influence & why? My biggest influence was definitely my nana. Even though she passed away, I still know that she is watching over me. Her goal for me was to go to college and I am doing that and so much more.

What is the most important lesson you learned? The most important lesson that I have learned is definitely not to procrastinate when it comes to school work.

What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice to freshmen would definitely be to not be shy and go into high school with an open mind. High school is so diverse and different, it's very easy to shut down and not be social.

Why did you select your destination? I chose SFSU because I knew that it was the school for me and the science department is great.

How did Modesto City Schools prepare you for your future? Modesto City Schools gave me the tools I need in order to succeed in life. The curriculum that they instill, and the dedication they put into the schools, show how much they care about their students.

In what extracurricular activities did you participate (clubs/music/chorus/athletics)? I participated in football my freshman year and my sophomore, junior, and senior year I participated in Water Polo and Swimming. I am also a very active member in Project Hope, Link Crew, and Black Student Union.

What is your favorite quote or saying? “Try to be a rainbow in someone's cloud.” -- Maya Angelou
