Course Name: United States History v12, v12.2

Course Credit: 1.0

Estimated Completion Time: 2 Semesters / 32-36 Weeks

Course Description: The United States began as an experiment in freedom and democracy. Since its establishment, the country and its people have endured social, political and economic revolutions. In this course, students will investigate the people, events and ideas that have shaped the United States from the end of the Civil War through today.

Students are asked to analyze and evaluate decisions made by political, business and military leaders. Emphasis is placed on connections between events of the past and present. This course also gives students the opportunity to conduct research and apply their learning to current, real-world problems.

Discussion-Based Assessments: 1.08, 2.09, 3.09, 4.07, 5.08, 6.09, 7.06

Collaboration Assignments: Teachers will be facilitating opportunities for students to complete the required collaboration activities (once per segment). Specific collaboration assessments have not been written into the lessons, allowing for the integration of current events into the course and giving students options for completing this requirement.

Honors Lessons: 1.05, 2.02, 3.06, 4.06, 5.04, 6.05, 7.03, 8.01
