Purpose of the Migrant Education Program

The Migrant Education Program (MEP) is federally funded designed to ensure that migrant children fully benefit from high quality and comprehensive educational programs.

How Does the Program Provide Support?

Through the Migrant Education Program, these children can be provided with supplemental education and support services to help overcome their difficulties, as well as, develop their skills and options for the future. In addition, the program provides opportunities for them to develop self-confidence and self-esteem.

Who are our Partners?

- ◆ School Districts in Madera, Merced, and Stanislaus Counties
- ◆ Health Clinics
- ◆ Community Agencies
- ◆ County Agencies
- ◆ Agribusinesses
- ◆ California State University Campuses
- ◆ Local Community Colleges
- ◆ Local Dentists and Physicians
- ◆ Local and National Non-Profit Agencies
- ◆ University of California Campuses

Parent Engagement and Leadership

Through participation in district and regional advisory committees, migrant parents are able to directly assist in planning and implementing high quality educational programs. Additionally, parents are provided local leadership trainings to strengthen their advocacy roles, as well as, parenting skills.

Find out if your child/ren or someone you know might qualify:

The Region III Migrant Education Program serves eligible migrant students in the counties of Madera, Merced, and Stanislaus. In order to determine the eligibility of your child/ren, please answer the following three questions:

Do you have children between the ages 3 to 21 years old and who have not graduated from high school?

Yes No

Have you and your children moved within the last three years?

Yes No

In the last three years, do you or have you worked in:

- ❖ Agriculture
- ❖ Cannery
- ❖ Dairy
- ❖ Packing Shed
- ❖ Fishing

Yes No

If you answered yes to any of the above questions, you may contact the Migrant Education Program staff for a personal interview to determine eligibility and to discuss free services available to your children. For more information regarding the Migrant Education Program services, please call:
